Medical Assisting Program Application

Program Description:

The Medical Assisting Program prepares students for a career as a medical assistant. The program combines instruction in core courses directed toward all healthcare providers with courses specific to medical assisting. Completion of the Medical Assisting Program will ensure the student has the necessary knowledge base and skills to succeed in an entry-level position in medical assisting. Medical Assisting courses will combine cognitive learning and practice of psychomotor skills in classroom and laboratory settings. Clinical training through unpaid externships in local outpatient clinics and physician offices will allow students to observe and practice skills gained in the classroom and laboratory in actual healthcare settings.

Medical assistants are skilled professionals who have specific training to work in a physician’s office or a clinic. Medical assistants perform administrative functions and basic clerical skills involving computer use, including writing business letters, compilation and filing of patient records, frequent utilization of electronic medical records (EMR) to input data and record finding medical insurance coding and processing third party reimbursement, transcription, reception, and preparing requisitions. Additionally, medical assistants are trained in many clinical skills, including obtaining vital signs, sterile technique, assisting physicians with diagnostic testing, minor surgical procedures and physical examinations, administering medications orally and via injection, laboratory procedures, phlebotomy, and processing/sterilization of medical equipment by autoclaving or other methods of disinfection.

The Medical Assisting Program may be completed in 4 quarters of full time study, consisting of 65.5 credits of programmatic and related instruction. Depending upon placement testing, students may need to complete additional prerequisite coursework in computer and keyboarding skills.

Working Environment

Medical assistants work in well-lighted, clean environments. There is a constant interaction with people, either in person or by telephone. Medical assistants most often work a regular 40-hour week, although part-time, evening, or weekend work may be available.

Personal Characteristics

The profession of Medical Assisting requires the ability to multi-task and use critical thinking skills. Prospective students should possess personal integrity, have the ability to pay close attention to detail, be conscientious, and orderly. Physical requirements include the ability to either sit or stand for long periods of time and the strength to lift supplies, lift and move patients, and maneuver heavy equipment. The nature of the career requires adequate vision, hearing and manual dexterity. Additionally, students must be willing to continue their education throughout their career to keep abreast of new developments in the field.

Employment Opportunities

According to the U.S. Bureau of Labor statistics, “Employment of medical assistants is projected to grow 29 percent from 2016 to 2026, much faster than the average for all occupations. The growth of the aging baby-boom population will continue to increase demand for preventive medical services, which are often provided by physicians. As a result, physicians will hire more assistants to perform routine administrative and clinical duties, allowing the physicians to see more patients.” Medical assistants may be eligible for employment in physician’s offices, clinics, and hospitals.
Medical Assistant Program Admission Policy

Admission Criteria:

The Walla Walla Community College Medical Assisting Program's purpose is to provide the medical community with talented and qualified medical assistants. With this comes the responsibility to assure the medical community that graduates of the WWCC Medical Assisting Program have the intelligence, ethical values, maturity, compassion and physical and emotional capabilities necessary to practice medical assisting. In keeping with the Medical Assisting Program goal, “to prepare WWCC Medical Assisting Program graduates as competent entry-level medical assistants having the knowledge base necessary for success in credentialing examinations and professional practice,” the Walla Walla Community College MA Program strives to select applicants who demonstrate both the appropriate personal characteristics and academic ability to become competent medical assistants.

Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

Walla Walla Community College complies with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990 as amended in 2008. Information regarding student accommodations may be obtained by contacting Bobbie Sue Arias, Ph.D., Coordinator of Disability Support Services, Walla Walla Community College, 500 Tausick Way, Walla Walla, WA 99362. Walla Walla campus: (509) 527-4262, bobbiesue.arias@wwcc.edu; or Clarkston campus: Heather Markwalter, 509.758.1721, heather.markwalter@wwcc.edu. The Section 504 Coordinator is responsible for monitoring and implementing the district’s compliance with state and federal laws prohibiting disability discrimination. Sherry Hartford, Vice President of Human Resources, (509)527-4382, serves as the Section 504 Officer.

Equal Opportunity Statement

Walla Walla Community College District No. 20 (WWCC) is committed to provide equal opportunity and nondiscrimination for all educational and employment applicants as well as for its students and employed staff, without regard to race, color, creed, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, including gender expression/identity, genetic information, marital status, age (over 40), the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical disability, the use of trained guide dog or service animal by a person with a disability, or status as a Vietnam and/or disabled veteran, National Guard member or reservist in accordance with the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, the Federal Rehabilitation of 1973, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 and any other applicable Federal and Washington State laws against discrimination. Sherry Hartford, Vice President of Human Resources (509)527-4382, has Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity, Title IX Coordinator and Section 504 Compliance program responsibility. The College’s TDD number is (509) 527-4412.

Walla Walla Community College prohibits smoking or other tobacco use, including the use of electronic cigarettes, distribution or sale of tobacco, including any smoking device, or carrying of any lighted smoking instrument within the perimeter or college property. This includes all college premises, sidewalks, parking lots, landscaped areas, sports fields; college owned, rented or leased building on campus; and college owned, rented or leased vehicles.

Marijuana Use: Although the State of Washington passed a law that legalized personal use of marijuana, it is essential that students realize that Washington’s system of legalized marijuana does not preempt federal law. Federally, Marijuana is illegal. It is listed as a Schedule 1 drug which is defined as drugs, substances or chemicals with no currently accepted medical use and a high potential for abuse. Clinical agencies are bound by Federal Law with regards to Marijuana use. As guests at our clinical agencies, we are bound by this same policy. If a student test positive for Marijuana metabolites, the students will be immediately dismissed from WWCC Allied Health Courses.

Drug Testing: Although the WWCC Health Science Division does not conduct drug testing without cause, students placed at some clinical agencies will be required to submit to a mandatory urine drug screening test before Day 1 of clinical or at any subsequent time as requested.

Background Authorization & Disclaimer

Our department policy is to first screen with Americhek Inc. and Washington State Patrol (WSP). A third background check is conducted through the Department of Social and Health Services Background Check Central Units. This is a State law requirement of every employee and every student intern in a long-term care facility. It takes a minimum of three weeks for our office to receive results from the Department of Social and Health Services Background Check Central Unit.

The Background Check Central Unit criminal history screen results will go directly to the clinical facility. This screening will include:

- Due process findings of abuse, neglect, abandonment, and exploitation
- More specific Department of Corrections information

In the event your criminal history report results with findings that prevent you from working with vulnerable adults, you will be notified by phone and by letter. Consequently, this would prevent you from being accepted into the Medical Assisting Program.

With my signature below, I authorize Walla Walla Community College to:

- Release all criminal background information to the clinical facility in order to facilitate the process of my enrollment in the Medical Assisting Program.
- Share information between the Background Check Central Unit, Americhek Inc., WSP, the clinical facility, Walla Walla Community College Instructors and advisors that are directly involved in my educational plan.

I understand that my ability to attend the clinical portion of this course is contingent of the results of the Americhek Inc., WSP, and Background Check Central Unit investigation. Furthermore, I understand that the Americhek Inc, WSP, and Background Check Central Unit investigation are only valid for six (6) months from the date the form is submitted.

A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act

The Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) is designed to promote accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of every “consumer reporting agency” (CRA). Most CRAs are credit bureaus that gather and sell information about you - such as if you pay your bills on time or have filed bankruptcy - to creditors, employers, landlords, and other businesses. You can find the complete text of the FCRA, 15 U.S.C. 1681 – 1681u, at the Federal Trade Commission’s web site (http://www.ftc.gov). The FCRA gives you specific rights, as outlined below. You may have additional rights under state law. You may contact a state or local consumer protection agency or a state attorney general to learn those rights.

- You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses information from a CRA to take action against you - such as denying an application for credit, insurance, or employment - must tell you, and give you the name, address, and phone number of the CRA that provided the consumer report.

- You can find out what is in your file. At your request, a CRA must give you the information in your file, and a list of everyone who has requested it recently. There is no charge for the report if a person has taken action against you because of information supplied by the CRA, if you request the report within 60 days of receiving notice of the action. You also are entitled to one free report every twelve months upon request if you certify that (1) you are unemployed and plan to seek employment within 60 days, (2) you are on welfare, or (3) your report is inaccurate due to fraud. Otherwise, a CRA may charge you up to eight dollars.

- You can dispute inaccurate information with the CRA. If you tell a CRA that your file contains inaccurate information, the CRA must investigate the items, (usually within 30 days) by presenting to its information source all relevant evidence you submit, unless you dispute is frivolous. The source must review your evidence and report its findings to the CRA. (The source also must advise national CRAs - to which it has provided the date - or any error.) The CRA must give you a Written report of the investigation does not resolve the dispute; you may add a brief statement to your file. The CRA must normally include a summary of your statement in future reports. If an item is deleted or a dispute statement is filed, you may ask that anyone who has recently received your report be notified of the change.

- Inaccurate information must be corrected or deleted. A CRA must remove or correct inaccurate or unverified information from its files, usually within 30 days after you dispute it. However, the CRA is not required to remove accurate data from your file unless it is outdated (as described below) or cannot be verified. If your dispute results in any change to your report, the CRA cannot reinsert into your file a disputed item unless the information source verifies its accuracy and completeness. In addition, the CRA must give you a written notice telling you it has reinserted the item. The notice must include the name, address and phone number of the information source.

- You can dispute inaccurate items with the source of the information. If you tell anyone - such as a creditor who reports to a CRA - that you dispute an item, they may not then report the information to a CRA without including a notice of your dispute. In addition, once you've notified the source of the error in writing, it may not continue to report the information if it is, in fact, an error.

- Outdated information may not be reported. In most cases, a CRA may not report negative information that is more than seven years old; then years for bankruptcies.

- Access to your file is limited. A CRA may provide information about you only to people with a need recognized by the FCRA - usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business.
A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act
(As Provided by the Federal Trade Commission)

- Your consent is required for reports that are provided to employers, or reports that contain medical information. A CRA may not give out information about you to your employer, or prospective employer, without your written consent. A CRA may not report medical information about you to creditors, insurers, or employers without your permission.
- You may choose to exclude your name from CRA lists for unsolicited credit and insurance offers. Creditors and insurers may use file information as the basis for sending you unsolicited offers of credit or insurance. Such offers must include a toll-free phone number for you to call if you want your name and address removed from future list. If you call, you must be kept off the lists for two years. If you request, complete, and return the CRA form provided for this purpose, you must be taken off the lists indefinitely.
- You may seek damages from violators. If a CRA, a user or (in some cases) a provider of CRA data, violates the FCRA, you may sue them in state or federal court.

The FCRA gives several different federal agencies authority to enforce the FCRA:

Vaccination and Tuberculosis Screening Requirements

To be completed and signed by your healthcare provider

STUDENT NAME:    DATE OF BIRTH: __________________________

Nursing: TB screening must be completed AFTER June 1 each year of the program.

Medical Assisting: TB screening must be completed AFTER August 10.

Other programs: TB screening must be completed prior to enrollment.

M. tuberculosis Screening:
Person entering Nursing Core Courses at Walla Walla Community College are required to receive baseline screening prior to entering the program, using two-step Tuberculosis Skin Testing (TST) to test for infection with M. tuberculosis. If the first-step TST result is negative, the second-step TST should be administered 1-3 weeks after the first TST result was read. A second-step TST is not required if the person has a documented TST result from any time during the previous 12 months.

Interferon-Gamma Release Assays (IGRAs) can be used in place of (but not in addition to) TST in all situations in which CDC recommends TST.

Persons with a baseline positive or newly positive result for M. tuberculosis infection or documentation of treatment for Latent TB Infection (LTBI) or TB disease will need one chest (x-ray) radiograph result and documentation of treatment to exclude TB disease.

Persons with a positive skin test or positive IGRAs, but have a negative chest (x-ray) radiograph result will need to submit radiograph results and an annual TB Symptom Screening Form to the right signed by both the student and healthcare provider.
